

Just Like You (F)

Pete Wernick

F Hector Brown lives on a farm, he's been a farmer all his life Bb F
He had to slow down when his heart broke down, he went under a surgeon's knife C7
F And the four kids that he raised all lived so far from home Bb F
And since his wife died last December, Hector's all a-lone. C7 F

Bb And if you don't think an old man could be alone and blue C7 F Bb
C7 Let me tell you, my friends, he's just like you F

F Ethel Kline lives in the city, her landlord lives out of town Bb F
And when the cold wind blows, it chills her, her backache gets her down C7
F So she reads by day and sleeps by night, and never goes no-where Bb F
And scarcely anybody even knows she's there. C7 F

Bb And if you don't think that woman could be alone and blue C7 F Bb
C7 Let me tell you, my friends, she's just like you F

F I know it's not too long ago you were only twenty-one Bb F
But time moves only one way, you won't always be young C7
F And if you don't think, when you get old, you could be alone and blue Bb F
Let me tell you, my friend, you've got some thinking to do. C7 F

Bb And if you don't think an old man could be alone and blue C7 F Bb
C7 Let me tell you, my friends, he's just like you F
