Bill Monroe & Lester Flatt

D G A D
You told me that your love was true, sweetheart I thought the world of you
G A D
But now you've left me all alone, I have no one to call my own.

D G A D
Now sweetheart you've done me wrong, you have left me all alone
G A D
Maybe there will come a time, sweetheart when you will change your mind.

D G A D
I never shall forget the day, when you said you were goin' away
G A D
I couldn't believe that it was true, after all the love I had for you.

D G A D
Now sweetheart you've done me wrong, you have left me all alone
G A D
Maybe there will come a time, sweetheart when you will change your mind.

D G A D
Oh, the road is rough and rocky too, as I travel on dear without you
G A D
But I'm still prayin' for the time, sweetheart when you will change your mind.

D G A D
Now sweetheart you've done me wrong, you have left me all alone
G A D
Maybe there will come a time, sweetheart when you will change your mind.
