

MRS. JAMES B. BUTTER
651 EAST SEVENTH STREET
YORK, NEBRASKA

October 17-34

Dear Mrs. Tallant :-

You will be surprised to hear from such a stranger as I, but my excuse for writing is the Cooley family line.
Mrs. Riggatt knew I was looking up that line and she gave me a letter
she had from you in April -1932

From your letter I do not find the line I am looking for - neither does Mrs. Riggatt seem to know any thing about either of our lines. But I am waiting, hoping that in your searching you may have run across mine.

Aaron Cooley - born 1802 (where?) m - Prudence Brewer Hibbard - b. 1802
Both died in Vernon Co. Wis.
He was a drummer boy - altio over 60 yr. old - in the Civil War - His wife rec'd a pension for many years.

Do you know any thing about their places of birth, or the names of their parents?

I would be much appreciated
for any data you will give me.

Thanking you, and enclosing a stamp for your reply, I am

Very sincerely yours,

Luna R. Butler
