

I have something that will surprise you. I went to Masou the 3rd had a birthday dinner with my daughter the 4th. So the 5th she said "Pa there is an old man Cooley on my street. well I will send him word to come over" - so here he came. I had not met him for 30 yrs. - "Now, Mr. Cooley there is a woman in California writing to me now. She wants to know about an old man Joe Cooley here." This is what he told me. He said Joe Cooley was his grandfather. Joe Cooley was Scotch Irish. He was the father of James Cooley and John Cooley and great uncle of Albert, father of Luther. John Cooley was Joseph's oldest son. James second son.

Calvin third son

Old uncle John Cooley his oldest son was Henry Cooley (oldest)

Moses second

Edward third

Wiles fourth

Mrs. Groves says Tink Cooley was a son of ^{Johnnie?} James Cooley a brother to Ben Cooley that mar. Aunt Bet Cooley (my aunt) and Ben was a brother of the Cooley that married aunt Dorothy Cooley at Carrollton.
